Gajanan Ankush Manjrekar & anr..... Respondent.

Shri Rajesh B. Parab for the petitioner
Shri M.E.Salgaonkar for Respondent.

CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 9TH MARCH, 2007

P.C.;

1. Consent Term duly signed by the parties and their advocates are placed on record. By the consent terms modification of the order is agreed. As agreed by the parties the institution is relieved on payment of backwages. By the present Consent Terms the respondent no.1 has given up his claim for backwags whereas the petitioner agrees to continue the respondent no.1 in service by granting continuity of service. The ptitioner no.1 is present in the court. He admits the consent terms to be true and correct, which is taken on record and marked as 'X' for identification. A joint request is made by the learned advocates for the respective parties to dispose of the writ petition in terms of consent terms/ Minutes of th Order. The writ petition is thus disposed of in terms of Minutes of order.
